

Coaches Code of Conduct

Results of Violations

Violations of the Coaches Code of Conduct will result in written documentation, advisory consultation and possible disciplinary action.

The Coaches Code of Conduct applies to both the Head Coach and all Assistant Coaches of a team.

The following outlines the disciplinary procedures of the Johnson County Park and Recreation District:

Violation of Codes A and/or B will result in the following:

1st Violation: Verbal warning for the Coach/Player/Fan if witnessed during a game. If brought to the attention of the Staff after the game, a warning via an e-mail or phone call from Park District staff will be administered.

2nd Violation: Suspension if witnessed during a game. After a second occurrence of violation occurs, this will result in an immediate suspension of coaching/playing/spectating duties/privileges for the next scheduled game.

3rd Violation: Permanent termination of that coach's/player's/fan's privilege to manage/coach/play/spectate Youth Sports with the Johnson County Park and Recreation District.

Conduct Codes C:

Any violation under Code C will result in an immediate suspension/termination of coaching/playing/spectating duties/privileges for the remainder of the season. This includes the privilege to manage/coach, play and attend youth sports. This must be sighted by District Staff or brought to the attention of Gym Supervisor, located at the front desk.

If occurrence takes place at the last game of the season, suspension/termination of coaching/playing/spectating duties/privileges for the entire following season(s) will apply.

The coach of each team is responsible for keeping their coaches, players, and fans in good conduct. JCPRD does not tolerate taunting, cursing or any other unsportsmanlike conduct. Any type of inappropriate behavior by a coach, parent, or player could result in disciplinary action as deemed necessary by JCPRD. Officials reserve the right to warn, penalize, and/or eject players, coaches, and/or spectators who are in violation of the JCPRD Code of Conduct.

Please remember that we are all here to present a positive example of sportsmanship and leadership to fellow athletes and impressionable youth.

District Mission Statement:

Enhance the quality of life in Johnson County by providing high-quality parks, services and recreation programs.
